Dedication

With the realization that we are still very young in heart and experience, with the knowledge that with their counsel there is yet peace and love, and a deeper, calmer faith for us to seek: we are gratefully dedicating this, the 1955 Aceonean, to our mothers and fathers.

community organization

In November of 1952 the Rock Creek Band Society became known as the Rock Creek Community Organization, its object being to organize all persons affiliated with and interested in the improvement of the Rock Creek School system. Since that time the organization has provided some entertaining as well as educational presentations. We hope it continues its outstanding contributions to the community.

alumni

Mrs. Gale Dalrymple, Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. Bryce Freds, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer; Floyd Reber, Vice-President; Ora McClurg, President.

The Rock Creek Alumni Association held their yearly meeting on April 30. On this occasion they welcomed the senior class of "55" into the organization.

We, the new "Alums" and former students hope that the Alumni Association shall find renewed interest in the Alma Mater with every coming meeting.

How We Looked Then

On August 26, 1943, nineteen angelic little faces smiled up at Miss Helen Eversole. Those present on that memorable occasion were Jack Boyer. Sandra Burton, Alice Grove, Larry Hand, Larry Nelson, Joyce Perry, Rex Perry, Jim Pursifull, Ted Pursifull, Neta Slagel, David Smith, Billy Sparks, Gail Tribolet, Larry Whinery, Dan Woods, Eloisa Ybarra, and Betty Day.

These same nineteen went on to the uneventful second grade and a new teacher, Mrs. Anna Britt. The third grade saw us gain four new classmates, Lois Geiger, Alice Gentis, Carmen Ralston, and Virginia Hall, and also a new teacher, Mrs. Lela Smith.

We gained one new member in the fourth grade by the name of Edward Harlan and lost to Huntington Township, our old friend, Larry Nelson, but we still were privileged to have the same teacher for the first time in our school career.

Mrs. Hazel Mitchell was our fifth grade teacher. That year we gained a sweet little girl, whose name was Patricia Close. She later moved to Ohio. Soon after, we lost our new friend, Eddie Harlan, when he moved to Indianapolis.

Our total number in the sixth grade was eighteen. We had gained one new member, Joyce Manning. Our teacher was Mrs. Bernice Fulton, wife of our senior class sponsor.

In the seventh grade, we had nineteen members, having gained Donald Buck and Arnold Hines, while losing Joyce Manning to Lancaster. We were feeling proud because we were priviledged to climb two extra flights of stairs. Eighth grade saw us with eighteen members. Betty Day and Eloisa Ybarra left us but we were joined by an illustrious southern gentleman, Carl Feemster.

In the ninth grade, we had a total of nineteen, this being the year of our unforgettable freshman initiation. New members were Ron Jordan and Betty Rhoades. Mr. James Crothers was our class sponsor. Later we were joined by Nancy Thompkins, while Betty Rhoades moved away.

We began our sophomore year with the same number of students. The most horrible experience of our sophomore year was the burning of the school's bus barn in October. Mr. James Crothers still remained our class sponsor.

In our junior year, we were sixteen in number, Nancy Tompkins having left us during the summer. This year, our class sponsor was Mrs. Virginia Michael. As graduation nears, we find ourselves with thirteen seniors, Virginia Hall and Larry Hand having left us. Our class sponsor is Mr. Charles Fulton.

When April 27 arrives, the following thirteen seniors will depart, Joyce Perry, Delphia Lahr, Lois Geiger, Carmen Ralston, Neta Slagel, Alice Grove, Dave Smith, Larry Whinery, Ron Jordan, Rex Perry, Gail Tribolet, Carl Feemster, and Bill Sparks, having gained knowledge, experience, and invaluable friendships and looking ahead to a great and glorious future.

Annual Staff

These are the people without whose help it would have been impossible to edit this yearbook. We started on a new system of publication this year, and we hope you will be satisfied with the results. By taking a "fall" delivery, we are able to include in the Aceonean the year-end activities such as basketball tourneys, plays, etc.

Class Prophecy

In 1975 on an expedition trip a few of their fellow juniors happened to come upon the seniors of "55." Throughout the country we came upon all of them, as they were toiling in their roles of life. As we left the Indianapolis airport, a flashing stewardess came through the plane and asked if we were comfortable. To our surprise it was Delphia Lahr. We asked her how she was, and she sadly replied, "My heart still cries for Dennis."

Our first stop was in Paris, France; and, as we toured the French Riviera, we found the former Carmen Ralston, a famous model in her French husband's Fashion Salon. He was the great Monsieur Pierre.

Later as we were passing an American army station in Paris, we found General Gail Tribolet and the still-Private Carl Feemster. They said they were working in a secret hydrogen bomb plant. Carl spoke of Neta and his four children and asked if we could stop at Hono Poke, Alaska, and pay them a visit on our way home.

We went on to Rome, Italy, and there we found Larry Whinery. He told us of his world-wide business. He was President of Purdue University and looking for exchange students for Purdue.

We made a quick trip toward home. We landed at San Francisco, and while touring the town we found Alice Grove. She was working as Eddie Fisher's personal maid. She said Debbie was fine. "Sob" "Sob." We flew down to Hollywood and found Billy Sparks, the now famous opera star making his grand debut in the Hollywood Bowl. We saw the former Lesley Lyons, who was Bill's wife, sitting in the audience nervously awaiting her husband's performance. She also had their six little "sparkies" with her.

We flew to Florida, and at Tallahassee we found the former Lois Geiger teaching the third and fourth grades at the Piccidili Primary School. Her husband, Marlyn Bryd, was running the Grand Hotel at Piccidili City.

We left Florida and went on to Washington, D.C. and found Ron Jordan's address in the directory. We went to visit him and found a beautiful home which he and his wife, the former Mary Smith, own. He said he was Speaker of the House of Representatives and was very well satisfied with the job.

We went on to Detroit and toured the Ford Plant. We found Rex Perry, an engineer designing the new 1976 Ford.

We went on to Minneapolis and found our old friend, Dave Smith, our former basketball star, coaching the Minneapolis Lakers.

Our next stop was at Indianapolis. Since it was Memorial Day we went to the 500-mile race. In the program we noticed a person's name which seemed familiar. It was that of Larry Hand from Huntertown, Indiana. This could be no one but our Larry who always drove the souped-up Fords when we were all in school. He was doing a good job of herding his jetmobile around the race track.

One of the members of our party got sick at the race so we took him down to the Medical Center, and guess whom we found as superintendent of nurses. Joyce Perry, or now Joyce Brumbaugh! She said she thoroughly enjoyed her position. We asked her how Rodger and the four kids were. She said they were all fine and Rodger had a wonderful job, teaching at the Technical College.

This concluded our trip, and we were glad we had seen our upper classmen of twenty years ago. We wonder what they will be doing in the twenty years to come.

Class Will

We, the Rock Creek High School Class of "55," being of sound mind and body, on this day do hereby and forthwith bequeath the following:

I, CARL FEEMSTER, will the ability to play baseball to Gene Grove.

I, LOIS GEIGER, hereby bequeath all rights, legal and illegal, that I now hold on Bill Sparks to Lesley Lyons.

I, LARRY HAND, will my ability to drive fast without accidents to Jay Mauger.

I, RONALD JORDAN, will my watch-post by the assembly door to Harold Bowman. (He needs it.)

I, DELPHIA LAHR, will all my dates with Tony Curtis to Verma Feemster.

I, JOYCE PERRY, will all my excess fat to Carolyn Boyer.

I, REX PERRY, will my old, beat-up, squaky desk in the assembly to any unlucky junior who is late on the first day of school next year.

I, TED PURSIFULL, will all of my dates with Martha Smith to Jim Jennings.

I, CARMEN RALSTON, will my good seat in the assembly to any lucky junior who gets it.

I, NETA SLAGEL, will my office job to any lucky junior.

I, DAVID SMITH, will something that I don't have to someone who does have it.

I, BILL SPARKS, will my speed on the basketball floor to Jack Brooks.

I, GAIL TRIBOLET, will my lost class ring to June Smith.

I, LARRY WHINERY, will my ability to alibi in class and get good grades doing it, to Donald Renbarger and Jay Mauger.

I, ALICE GROVE, will my long hair to Leta Elliot.

We, DAVID SMITH and LARRY WHINERY, will our private office in the north-west corner of the assembly to Jack and Bill. (They need it.)

We, THE SENIOR GIRLS, will our persuasiveness, colored with bribery, to get out of Mr. Roth's classes to the Junior girls.

We, THE SENIOR BOYS, will to the Junior boys, all the fun we have had in shop this year. Homer, too?

We, THE SENIOR GIRLS, will our ability to quarrel among ourselves and still be good friends, to the Junior girls.

And having hereby made the aforementioned bequests, the parties of the first part do hereby and forthwith, will to the parties of the second part, our long-suffering sponsor, Mr. Fulton.

CLASS WILL, CONTINUED

Sworn and subscribed to this twenty-second day of April, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Five. And hereto we have set our hand and seal.

Signed: Parties of the first part: Larry Whinery, Delphia Lahr, Joyce Perry, Lois Geiger, Alice Grove, David Smith, Neta Slagel, Gail Tribolet, Ronald Jordan, Ted Pursifull, Larry Hand, Carmen Ralston, Bill Sparks, Carl Feemster and Rex Perry.

Poems

SENIOR CLASS

Our Senior Class of Fifty-five,
We're full of pep, real alive.
With descriptions of every lad and lass,
We bid you "Adieu" from the Senior Class.

GAIL LEON TRIBOLET

Gail Leon, handsome and wise,
Blond hair and green eyes.
He likes cars, drives a white Ford,
If you are with him, you're never bored.

REX JAY PERRY

Rex Jay, "IKE" of the class,
He makes a hit with every lass.
He's headed toward Purdue next year,
Soon he'll be an engineer.

JOYCE KAY PERRY

Joyce Kay is a friendly gal,
Lot's of gab, a very good pal.
A nurse she'll be with a big smile,
She'll go far on life's long mile.

DELPHIA MAE LAHR

Delphia Mae, the gal with our money,
The boys think she's sugar and honey.
She says she'll settle down with a pussy cat,
But if you are smart, you won't believe that.

NETA JEAN SLAGEL

Neta Jean, our office girl,
To Mr. Fulton, she's a pearl.
Good grades she gets all the time,
With a "Good Luck" we'll end this rhyme.

LARRY ALAN WHINERY

Larry Alan, our editor-in-chief,
He's here, then there, just like a leaf.
There's not a dull moment when he's around
But the "LAW" always stands his ground.

LARRY EDWARD HAND

Larry Edward, quiet and shy,
How he makes that white Ford fly,
He has black hair and uses his smile,
As he chases pretty girls all the while.

RONALD LEWIS JORDAN

Ronald Lewis, brain of our gang,
Excellent vocabulary, very little slang.
He knows everything from science to sports,
But we've yet to know the girl he courts.

WILLIAM ROSS SPARKS

William Ross is our tall, talented guy,
The girls all like him, we wonder why.
He sings in the chorus, he's an artist too.
He likes horses and "Chevies" blue.

CARL EDWARD FEEMSTER

Carl Edward, our southern fellow,
His dialect's so mild and mellow,
He answers to the title "BO",
When you meet him, how that smile does glow.

LOIS WAUNITA GEIGER

Lois Waunita is our studious one,
When it comes to lessons, she's real gone.
Her ambitions, once many, are now two,
Ball State is calling, but Marlyn is too!

ALICE ELAINE GROVE

Alice Elaine, our atomic blond,
Of her we are very fond.
The future for her may be planned.
But who knows where our Alice may land.

CARMEN FAYE RAISTON

Carmen Faye, a friend tall and slender,
A heart for a man may be quite tender.
She has a temper, we'll forget,
She's the girl we're glad we met.

DAVID LEROY SMITH

David Leroy, our basketball star,
He drives a very handsome car.
He's very quiet, he's very shy,
It seems he catches many a girl's eye.

TED ALLEN PURSIFULL

Ted Allen, our handsome boy,
Holsteins are his pride and joy.
In telling jokes, he's a whiz.
But not so good in that history quiz.

By Lois Geiger

Lois Geiger's poem was written by Delphis Lahr.

I feel that the 1954 - 55 Aces were one of the better teams Rock Creek has produced. We started the season with 11 consecutive wins and were one of the last ten high school teams in the state of Indiana to taste defeat.

We played some of the toughest teams on our schedule the last half of the season and with a little smile from Lady Luck would have added a couple more wins to our wonderful record. All in all we had a marvelous fifteen won, six lost record that everyone is proud of.
